

Industry Veteran Arun Kumar Singh Joins FHRAI IHM As Director

by HEP Online Bureau — March 11, 2021 in Press Releases

The FHRAI Institute of Hospitality Management (FHRAI-IHM) has appointed Mr Arun Kumar Singh as its Director effective March 2021. An illustrious career spanning over three and half decades in Hospitality Management, Mr Singh brings to FHRAI-IHM his expertise in Institutional and academic administration. He will aid FHRAI-IHM’s Research and Development and be a value-add to the institute’s faculty.

Prior to joining FHRAI-IHM, Mr Singh served as the Principal of IHMCTAN Mumbai, the Principal of Institute of Hotel Management of Lucknow and the State Institute of Hotel Management, Jodhpur. In his last stint, he played a pivotal role in obtaining a grant of 11 crores from Ministry of Tourism, Government of India for upgrading the training facility at IHMCTAN Mumbai. In the recent past, he assisted the Maharashtra Government in setting-up the State’s Institute of Hotel Management in Solapur.

“My tenure of twenty-four years in various Hospitality Management institutes has enriched my knowledge in the field. Over the years I gained exposure to infrastructure creation and development, student empowerment and upgradation of knowledge and skill. Over the next five years, I aspire to lead FHRAI-IHM to become an institution of excellence in Hospitality education by fostering knowledge, innovation and entrepreneurship. In this endeavour, I hope to make an impact on the hospitality industry ecosystem in the country,” says Mr Arun Kumar Singh.

Tags: Arun Kumar Singh FHRAI IHM

Previous Post

Five ed-tech start-ups revolutionizing robotics in India forever!

Next Post

Digital Campuses in India

HEP Online Bureau

Related Posts

PRESS RELEASES

PRESS RELEASES

PRESS RELEASES